season thirteen

Welcome!

The 2018-19 season is here and Tulsa Symphony couldn't be more excited about offering the widest variety of diverse and entertaining programming in our history! From the incredible artistry of the Opening Night Gala Celebration with internationally acclaimed cellist, Lynn Harrell, to the amazing Hanson: String Theory season finale at the PAC surrounded by the excitement and buzz of Mayfest, Tulsa Symphony offers something really special, entertaining and fun for everyone.

Harry Potter fans, we haven't forgotten you! November is movie month featuring Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets! Just two weeks later we get into the holiday spirit with that family favorite, Home Alone, all with incredible live orchestra soundtracks.

Classic fans and subscribers can look forward to the brilliant musicianship of the full symphony orchestra led by Principal Guest Conductor Daniel Hege and renowned conductors James Bagwell, Gerhardt Zimmerman and Matthew Halls, while chamber audiences will once again enjoy four warm and welcoming evenings in the casual and intimate setting of Fridays in the Loft.

The fun and the great music begin with the free season kick-off concert on the Guthrie Green, Friday, September 7. Arrive early with your blankets, lawn chairs and coolers to be sure you have your favorite piece of turf for this annual community launch of the new season and TSO's gift to you for your wonderful support. We'll be looking for you at the September celebration and throughout the season to not miss a beat!
